

Recommendation 100815-8

The PPB should advise any persons subjected to a non-custodial, consensual interview, in writing, that they have the right not to answer questions and the right to leave at any time without being subject to any adverse consequences.